Report of the Trustees
For The Year Ended 31 March 2022

Executive Summary

This report is Amina - the Muslim Women's Resource Centre's trustee's report for the financial year ended 31st March 2022. In the beginning of March 2020 when Scotland with the rest of the world went into various lockdowns, we could not have imagined how the year would unfold. The devastating impact the health and economic emergency would have on our societies, the trials and challenges communities would face in the wake of the pandemic and the disproportionate burdens BME (Black Minority Ethnic) communities, particularly women, would have to endure. Amina, like several organisations in the third sector would get caught in a vortex of emergency rapid response work and closures of in-person services/premises, which would be replaced overnight with digital delivery and remote working, along with an uncertain funding landscape.

Throughout the pandemic the organisation's board, staff and volunteers would also be delivering on Amina's strategic aims: contributing to the ending of violence affecting Muslim and BME women and girls; creating opportunities for Muslim and BME women in realising and strengthening their potential; and developing a strong and effective organisation underpinned by systems that support efficiency.

Following programmes and projects were delivered in the financial year ended 31st March 2022:

- Emerging Futures - Life in the time of a pandemic: Continued funding by the National Lottery Fund, this was a pandemic informed rapid response project which initially was funded for six months and originally was scheduled to run from October 2020 to September 2021. This project enabled virtual and physical conversations with Muslim, BME women, on what is important in their lives and how these key concerns have been affected by the pandemic.
- Employability & Digital Inclusion: Funded by the Scottish Government's Adult Learning & Empowering Communities (ALEC) Fund. The Digital Inclusion work was designed with outcomes around developing and improving the digital and language literacy skills of BME and Muslim women living in Scotland; reducing digital exclusion through a range of online services and resources; and reducing social isolation and improving the wellbeing of BME women disproportionately impacted by the pandemic. These outcomes were met through a range of digital wellbeing and mental health interventions.
- Ending Violence Against Women and Girls: Informed by Scottish Government's Equally Safe Strategy and funded by the Scottish Government's programme Delivering Equally Safe Fund, the project works with Muslim and BME women on increasing their awareness and confidence around the understanding of VAWG issues as well as working with mainstream organisations in building their capacity to support Muslim and BME women.
- Financial Advocacy Project: Funded by Corra's Henry Duncan fund, we started this work in October 2020 as a new three-year service providing financial advocacy support to Muslim and BME women and their households.
- Helpline telephone and befriending service: Provision of free phone listening ear and support service for Muslim women.
- Helpline Campaigns and Development: This strand of work raises wider awareness and engages with communities on social and human rights issues that are of concern to Muslim, BME women.
- Inspire, Connect and Enable (ICE): Funded by the National Lottery Fund this 3-year funded social isolation reduction project encourages and enables Muslim and BME women in Dundee to engage in a range of learning and fund activities. The project is in its third year and picked up after Covid-19 measures and staffing changes.
- Rank podcast project: Funded by the Rank foundation this Dundee based one-year project aims to provide creative skills development opportunities to Muslim and BME women by attending workshops in collaboration with Dundee Contemporary Arts (DCA).
- UNESCO City of Design project: In partnership with UNESCO City of Design Dundee, Muslim & BME women created an interactive design-based exhibition, inviting members of the public to journey through the stages of life and contemplate ways in which design affects them.
- Ward 6 project: Funded by the Ward 6 Community Choices Fund, this short-term Glasgow based project's aim was to build the capacity of Muslim, BME women residing in the Ward 6 area of Glasgow. Through a training programme which raised the participant's awareness on how they could assist in the tackling of inequalities, develop their skills and confidence, and positively contribute to their communities.

ACCOUNTABILITY

Amina's work is regularly reviewed internally and externally through recording of progress across input/ output indicators and outcomes as set within project frameworks. Funding is applied for projects that further the organisations strategic action plan and reflect the experiences and needs of the beneficiary communities we serve. The project recording and reporting frameworks are based on funding criteria. To assess the effectiveness and impact of services being delivered data related to service user/ community profile and need, is regularly gathered, analysed, and assessed, where the learning from these assessments is applied in developing the work further. The programme staff are in regular communication with funders (Scottish Government, Charities Aid Foundation, Network for Social Change, Rank Foundation, Historic Environment Scotland, Glasgow Council for the Voluntary Sector) and fund administrators (Inspiring Scotland, Corra).

PERFORMANCE AND MILESTONES

Charitable activities highlights

It's difficult to speak about this period without mentioning the challenges we have all faced with the impact of the pandemic. Like many other organisations, Amina staff were suddenly faced with the challenge of working from home. With the restrictions we were no longer able to interact face to face and daily meetings were held online all whilst having to home school our children. From a management perspective, this was nothing like anything experienced before. As the pandemic continued, it became clear that many social issues were being hugely exacerbated from isolation, digital exclusion, homelessness, and domestic abuse through to acute financial difficulties. We faced a huge demand for our services yet were faced with uncertainty with the core funding streams for both our Helpline and also Violence Against Women and Girls services.

We were determined to adapt to the emerging issues and provide our vital grassroots services to Muslim and BME women. The passion and commitment from our staff team and volunteers for Amina to support and deliver our services to women was evident. They went above and beyond by helping women in crisis through various means including our helpline, hardship fund, befriending services and financial advocacy services.

Despite all these challenges, we have continued our organisational growth. In fact, we have expanded our staff compliment as the need for specialised services provided by Amina is needed more than ever. In the midst of adversity, we are determined to continue to be the voice, listening ear, advocates for Muslim and BME women and help them on their journey of empowerment and equality.

We have taken every opportunity to grow, learn and continue being the leading grassroots organisation serving Muslim and BME women. We will continue to shine a light on the deepening inequalities faced by Muslim and BME women whilst creating a safe and supportive space for women to grow and be empowered.

We are proud to bring to you our achievements as an organisation during these challenging times. The staff team and volunteers have worked relentlessly to support women and continue to be the voice of Muslim and BME women.

Our presence in media was regular throughout the year with staff and Board responding to issues on islamophobia, hijab, forced marriage, gender inequality and more. Our social media following continued to grow on our various platforms:

- Facebook: 1 April 2020=1 – 31 March 2022
Increased - 5,206 to 5,834 likes = 628 increase
- Twitter: 1 April 2021 – 31 March 2022

Creative Arts & Wellbeing

The pandemic has been a difficult time of adjustment for everyone, but across the country the isolation and severity of the pandemic for minority groups has been extensive. In recognition of this we launched 'Life in the Time', a creative wellbeing project funded by the National Lottery Emerging Futures strand. 8 arts venues around Scotland came on board as virtual venue partners to promote the exhibition and ensuring the exhibition could 'tour' from the Highlands & Islands to the Scottish Borders. The exhibition can be viewed here: <https://life-in-the-time-exhibition.com/>. The project not only provided people with an insight of the experiences of Muslim and BME women in these circumstances, but further created a community of women who were keen to stay in touch with Amina for creative and supportive workshops.

"It was good to learn from other women who are finding ways to cope through the loneliness and isolation."

"I have been on my own during the whole pandemic, this is the first time I have met other women from my community"

Our ICE (Inspire, Connect, Enable) group has continued to meet in Dundee. Once in-person events became possible again more and more Dundee based women have had the opportunity to connect with others in the community and learn new skills. We are currently hosting regular lunch clubs, city walking groups and swimming sessions. In November ICE attracted a record 58 women to our last lunch meet-up of 2021!

"I never knew I could learn something new at my age"

The UNESCO City of Design project has created an opportunity for the group to connect and discover shared experiences living as Muslim and BME women in Dundee as well as showcasing their own skills and interests in art and design in their daily lives. The group were introduced to a professional designer, who delivered weekly design skills workshops via Zoom and helps them to co-create a collaborative design for the City of Dundee.

Once a month the group meets in-person ranging from a city tour where each participant introduced the others to the things of interest in her own neighbourhood to an interactive day at Dundee Design Festival where the participants travelled to all four design locations and took part in screen printing, model making and game design to a hands on workshop applying biomimicry skills in practical lamp making. The group will showcase their design project in late Spring 2022 in Dundee.

"This is the only place I can show my true voice"

In Autumn 2021 Amina partnered with Bijli for a new series of creative wellbeing workshops, We Make the Path. Every week a group of women meet with two trauma-informed creative practitioners. The group participate in writing and drama exercises and are developing ideas for a showcase event to be publicly shared in summer 2022. The group meet weekly on Zoom, and once a month in person.

"I never knew this place existed and I have lived here for 2 years!"

At the end of the year, we had our first in-person get together for the Rank funded Community Arts project. After a social lunch the group headed to Dundee Contemporary Arts (DCA) where the DCA's Head of Learning, Sarah Derrick, gave a brief tour of the Create and Exhibition spaces and planned the project with the group. Over the next six months the group will learn about all aspects of DCA including the Learning, Cinema Programming, Print Studio & Exhibitions department before producing a podcast about their experiences.

Employability, Financial & Digital Inclusion

There are many ways that Amina seeks to provide access to practical skills, learning, and employability advice for women, whether this is holding ESOL classes, getting isolated women online, or helping to educate women on the benefits system. It is imperative to our mission to empower women that we provide them with the information they need to access support when they need it.

Financial Advocacy and Inclusion

Amina's Financial Advocacy Project aims to provide information and support to Muslim and BME families who are struggling with poverty, a lack of financial knowledge, and/or little understanding of the benefits system. The project also helps women in crisis source urgent support, such as hardship grants, new benefit applications, or advocacy with debt collectors.

Amina's Financial Advocacy Officer has provided one to one support to 125 clients, most having multiple issues which included:

- Complex health issues
- Debt
- Eviction notices
- Fleeing domestic violence
- Difficulty applying for benefits
- Husbands leaving the women to fend for themselves with no money or food
- Believing there was bad juju causing financial issues
- Financial crisis
- No income due to wage earner having been paid "cash in hand" and loss of that work due to Covid.
- Benefits information
- No money for public transport to a foodbank
- Language difficulties
- Unable to read and write in any language

Amina Financial Advocacy has referred many clients to other supports including Women's Aid, GP's, Social Work, Aberlour Urgent Assistance Fund, Migrant Help, Family Finances Approach Glasgow, Christians Against Poverty, Amina's Legal Clinic and more.

"After going through a difficult time, the wonderful MWRC team did the possible and impossible to wipe my tears and change my sadness to joy, by sorting out my debt issue. I was lucky enough to be referred to Amina by government bodies who trust Amina as much as I do. No words can thank you enough."

We also received funding to run three informative workshops where we addressed sources of support in families, women's financial rights within Islam, and sources of financial support including the benefits system. These workshops were all well attended and involved many of the participants actively seeking help and advice on the complex issues in their lives.

ESOL (English for Speakers of Other Languages)

Our ESOL classes have continued over the period of 2021-2022. ESOL is still our most requested class, and has been since the start of our online provision. The ESOL classes allow women the space to be able to develop their English over the core four areas (reading, writing, speaking, and listening), which is something that many of Amina's clients say they want to improve.

We have delivered over 250 hours of ESOL learning which is delivered weekly with beginners and advanced sessions which is open to women all over Scotland. 278 women have attended ESOL for Beginners and 272 women have attended Advanced ESOL classes. Between October 2021 and March 2022, Amina received additional funding to provide 1 extra class per week that focused on English grammar skills and creative writing and reading.

"I liked everything. I made progress with most of the skills. I would like to do more vocabulary learning and grammar. I liked using zoom and Canva. I like online learning and would like to do another English course."

"Learned a lot, made new friends"

"I want to learn more English. If I learn then I would like to become an Urdu Teacher."

Chai Time

Chai Time started in December 2020 to create a space for women to be able to come online, chat with and make connections with other women and receive information. Chai Time has been designed to be an informal space that isn't led by a tutor or staff member with a fixed agenda. The women in Chai Time have a safe space where they can talk about a variety of topics and have conversation with purpose. In the period up to 31 March 2022, Chai Time ran on a weekly basis, with women joining from all over Scotland. 133 women attended Chai Time sessions since they began in December 2020. We have also invited speakers to come and guest on Chai Time. For example, this year we have had representatives from NHS Scotland to speak to our women about the COVID-19 vaccine and breast cancer screenings.

Health Issues in the Community and Hate Crime Courses

Amina successfully delivered a Community Development Course and Tackling Hate Crime Training for Trainers course to 29 BME women. The project aimed to build the capacity of Muslim and BME women residing in the Ward 6 area of Glasgow to assist in the tackling of inequalities, develop their skills and confidence, and positively contribute to their communities. The training was delivered in two blocks:

- The Health Issues in the Communities Accredited course (HICC), supported women to develop the skills and knowledge to understand community development approaches, and gain an understanding of the social model of health, health inequalities, power & participation and community development approaches in health.
- The Hate Crime Training for Trainers course supported participants in developing their knowledge and understanding of Hate Crime and Legislation. It has empowered participants to deliver training to support women in addressing and reporting Hate Crime, and build their confidence and resilience in tackling these issues.

Participants were awarded SCQF level 7 for full completion of the course.

Ending Violence Against Women and Girls

Our ending Violence Against Women and Girls work continued over 2021-22. We were delighted to receive funding to recruit a Women's Rights' Caseworker to advocate for BME women and girls experiencing abuse of all kinds in Scotland. Despite continued restrictions due to the pandemic, our prevention work gained a huge amount of exposure with many workshops and discussions taking place online. our work online engaged over 45,000 people. Working with professionals in mental health fields and Muslim women scholars, we have explored the complexities behind spiritual abuse, forced marriage, self-care, gender-based violence, and support available to abuse victims.

We have launched several campaigns under You Can Change This to highlight what actions we can take to prevent and end gender based violence, including our short film featuring male ambassadors from Muslim and BME communities who took a commitment to playing an active role in ending violence against women.

We have delivered training to a number of organisations such as: Glasgow Women's Aid, Zero Tolerance and The Prince's Trust. Training included discussions around spiritual abuse in the Muslim community and barriers facing Muslim women in accessing services.

As restrictions lifted near the end of 2021, we were able to hold an in-person event to commemorate the victims of honour-based abuse with a candle lit vigil as part of 16 Days of Action.

Here are some of the spotlight events over 2021-22:

- We ran a 4 part series called Mis-Matched on Facebook live exploring the safety of Muslim marriage apps, discussions on positive relationships, marriage contracts and divorce (focusing on triple talaq). Guests included Shaykh Amer Jamil, Elena (Empowerment Project), relationship counsellors and an award winning film maker, Shazia Javed.
- With a view to raise awareness about consent, and challenge misconceptions around sexual violence. The event covered the concept of consent, consent culture, barriers to good consent, BME perspective on consent and consent from a faith perspective using hadith and qur'anic references to challenge myths that BME communities may have.
- Secrets & Lies: Canadian Muslim female scholar Dr Ingrid Mattson joined Amina for a discussion on spiritual abuse, focusing on 'how to prevent and respond to abuse and exploitation by those holding religious power, knowledge and authority in the Muslim community'.
- We were pleased to launch our You Can Change This pledge online on our website. We have asked Muslim and BME male ambassadors to commit to play an active role in ending violence against women.

Amina Women's Rights Caseworker

This service started in October 2021 and allows women to be practically supported in issues such as domestic abuse, mental health and women with no recourse to public funds. In the 6 months we had 40+ ongoing cases.

"Thank you so much. I was so scared they were going to send me back because I have no one and I am scared of my husband"

"Thank you very much, you have helped me and I thought no one could help me"

"You have been so helpful Farah, you are so lovely and friendly and helped me feel safe"

Equalities & Human Rights (Helpline)

Equalities and Human Rights encompasses all our work that seeks to advocate for women in their first contact to Amina. A key part of this work is Amina's Helpline which also includes many services that reach out to women in the community as well as providing a safe place for them to talk. The Helpline has expanded its services over the past two years to provide support in more specific ways. The Helpline hosts an Islamic scholar once a week, an immigration law clinic once a month and a housing clinic once a fortnight. The Helpline team also provide continued support to women through their befriending programme, which is significantly supported by our amazing volunteers. This befriending service has been especially important due to the pandemic causing isolation and has allowed women to feel connected and supported in times of distancing and exclusion.

The Helpline is more than just a signing-posting service at Amina. We seek to help and support women as far as they need, which often involves advocating for them as they seek out the services they require for their circumstances. Amina is often reviewed by beneficiaries as “going above and beyond”: we believe we are effectively plugging gaps left by other services and facilitating better service access and community connection. The Helpline is not simply a ‘wait until someone calls and asks for help’ kind of service. Over the past two years, and because of the effects of the pandemic, the helpline has adopted a proactive approach to the work in the community, providing 186 Ramadan Care Packages to Muslim and BME women all over Scotland. We were also able to hold an Eid Toy Drive where we provided 315 children who were experiencing challenging circumstances with gifts.

Amina’s Helpline is the only national helpline in Scotland for Muslim and BME women that provides a faith and culturally sensitive approach. The Helpline is a free service, and the Helpline number does not appear on phone bills. All calls are strictly confidential and non-judgemental. There are many services which are part our Helpline service including the Helpline itself, live chat, the Islamic scholars, and befriending service.

The total number of calls from 1 April 2021 to 31 March 2022: 2772

Top 5 issues and the number of calls for them:

Depression - 462

Social Isolation - 397

Marital/relationship - 396

Accessibility in Focus (every 6 months) – Content from community members/orgs to increase awareness about experiences of additional support needs and have their voices amplified where they may be otherwise excluded.

As circumstances are always changing, it is important for the Helpline team to continue to be training in ways that equip them for the advice and services they may be offering, as well as participating in research and advocacy events to create more accessible information and support on a lot of the issues experienced by our clients. Here are some of the spotlight events and training sessions over 2021-22:

Decolonising the Mindset: 282 registrants who were primarily teachers/educators or policy makers signed up to discuss institutionalised racism in the Scottish Education system.

WEN Climate Change Workshop: 10 women fed into a discussion on the New Green Deal being submitted during COP26.

Elephant in the Room: Partnered with the 'Elephant in the Room' campaign at Queen Margaret Union at Glasgow University to raise awareness of Muslim and BME women's experiences of mental health, and to promote the Helpline as one way of accessing faith and culture sensitive support.

We were pleased to receive continued funding from the Scottish Government through the Equality and Human Rights (EHR) grant in October 2021. We recruited 3 new helpline team members in November 2021. The beginning of the 3-year EHR fund is a very exciting time for the helpline team and Amina as a whole.

Highlights for 2021-22 included:

- Working in partnership with the Equity Working group at South Lanarkshire council - this allowed the opportunity to work with them in the future on recruitment and retention of BME staff.
- Created and delivered training for Cruse Bereavement Scotland – very positive feedback was received. Chapter to Chapter Dialogues with Side by Side, an interfaith gender justice initiative.
- Involved in the Scotland chapter of Side by Side and are setting it up to be hosted by Interfaith Glasgow from 2022. This was an opportunity to discuss what other countries are doing to work towards gender justice in faith communities.

Partnership Working

A wide range of organisations have worked collaboratively with us this year, some have donated their resources and shown their approved support towards Amina.

The Board would like to take this opportunity to thank all the partner organisations, funders, volunteers, individual donors and corporate bodies for their significant and valued contributions and support to the charity.

Financial Review

The net incoming resources, after operational expenses of £438,361, for the period were £51,385.

At the end of the financial period reserves were £163,142.

The principal funding sources for the charity are currently by way of grant income from the Scottish Government and other charitable Trusts. The charity also relies on voluntary donations and community fundraising to meet their day-to-day financial commitments. These funds have been utilised to meet the operational expenses of the charity.

The Board recognises that the Centre is a "not for profit" organisation and are cognisant of the position to ensure that the organisation is managed in a manner, which acknowledges the inherent responsibilities, demands, and structures, which form the reality of operating in the Scottish economy.

Amina is working towards a reserves policy that allows current work to continue post the funding date for projects where funders may not notify of decision to continue funding until after the end of the financial year. To this end, the intention is to develop reserves for 4 months budgeted expenditure of all potential ongoing costs to the organisation. The reserves will be generated from unrestricted revenue as all restricted funds require to be spent within that funding year unless permission has been given to extend the period of grant.

Future Developments

As highlighted last year, the financial context in which our organisation operates is becoming more challenging. Continued growth can no longer be safely assumed. Amina is conscious of the need to diversify its funding sources and of using its existing resources in the most effective manner possible. We have been exploring the idea of a social enterprise as a source of income generation.

Reliance on public funding is still a dominating factor and will continue to remain a significant feature of the organisation's overall income base but we will continue to diversify our streams of funding to maintain control of our organisational development and our overall mission. Our resources will not just take the form of monetary income; volunteers are vital in sustaining some of our core services and delivering our wider mission, we therefore need to invest more time and resources in developing our volunteers.

We have been focusing more on the evaluation of services and encouraging staff to think about what long-term and short-term 'difference' their activities make to the women we work with and to the wider communities. This has resulted in more useful information emerging regarding evaluation. We will continue to focus on this, as well as quality assurance.

Our service provision will always endeavour to be flexible enough to meet the needs of Muslim, BME women, considering the wider social, economic and political changes. We will also continue to evolve and adapt our policies and procedures in line with these changes.

STRUCTURE, GOVERNANCE AND MANAGEMENT

Governing document

The charity is regulated by its Memorandum and Articles of Association, as adopted in 2012 and amended in 2013, 2015 and 2016.

The purpose of the charity is:

Recruitment and appointment of new trustees

The Board consists of up to 12 elected members plus up to 3 additional persons appointed by the Board. Board members are elected at the AGM and entitled to serve for two years. Retiring Board members are entitled to stand for election.

A person shall not be eligible for election as a Director unless she is a member of the company. An appointed Director need not be a member of the company but must agree to adhere to the Memorandum and Articles and promote the interests of the company.

The quorum for Board meetings shall be four members, at least two of whom shall be elected.

Organisational structure

Amina - the Muslim Women's Resource Centre has changed its legal form from an unincorporated charity to an incorporated charity effective from 1 October 2012. OSCR consent was received regarding the change of legal form. The company limited by guarantee was incorporated on the 19 September 2012 and undertook the charity's aims from 1 October 2012. All the assets and liabilities of the unincorporated charity as of 30th September 2012 were transferred to the incorporated charity on 1 October 2012.

Governance and Management

The overall control of the Centre lies with the Board who have the power to decide on all matters concerning Amina, subject to the memorandum and articles, and policy made at the AGM. The Chief Executive Officer (CEO) has overall responsibility for the operational management of the organisation. Staff directly reported to the CEO with sessional staff, and volunteers directly reporting to project staff.

The Chairperson is responsible for the management of the Board. Both the Chairperson and the CEO report directly to the Board, with the Chairperson lining managing the CEO.

Volunteers form a major asset of Amina. Once trained for the role, they are involved in all aspects of service user support, assist with administration, and have become involved in development work. Amina has a fully developed volunteer policy which identifies recruitment, and support and supervision arrangements for volunteers. As indicated previously, Amina was awarded the 'Volunteer Friendly' Award in September 2018 which was valid until September 2021.

In addition to the above the following operational policies and guidelines are in place:

- Conflict of Interest Policy
- Data Protection and Confidentiality policy
- Complaints & suggestions Procedure
- Maternity and parental rights
- Disciplinary procedure
- Health and Safety policy
- Equal opportunities

STRUCTURE, GOVERNANCE AND MANAGEMENT

Sustainability and Risk Management

The Board have examined the major strategic and operational risks, which the organisation faces and confirm that systems have been established to enable regular reports to be produced so that the necessary steps can be taken to lessen these risks. These procedures are periodically reviewed to ensure that they still meet the needs of the charity.

As with all voluntary sector organisations, Amina is vulnerable to changes in public policy affecting statutory funding.

Amina has developed a fundraising strategy designed to diversify the sources of funding, and increase sustainable fundraising streams, for the period of 2021-2022. In addition to applications to a range of statutory and charitable trust funds, the plans for community-based fundraising and individual donations will bring in increased levels of funding from this stream during the forthcoming financial years. In furtherance of this Amina continues to invest in fundraising training for staff and volunteers.

Amina is aware of the potential risks attached to the provision of advice, counselling, and befriending. To counter this, the organisation invests in training for staff and volunteers, has robust supervision and risk management procedures, and in case of a claim, professional indemnity insurance to cover such eventualities.

Amina will carry out effective risk assessment and management to identify, evaluate and attempt to control all potential risks. Although it is not possible for us to eliminate risk factors entirely, we will endeavour to reduce these risks to a level that the organisation is comfortable with, be it governance, external, regulatory and compliance, operational or financial factors. We will continue our analysis of all risk factors and will aim to prioritise them, reduce, and control them, monitor them, and have assurance that the controls put in place are working as planned.

The trustees recognised the sustainability challenge that Amina is facing, not dissimilar to challenges faced by any voluntary organisation. In response to this challenge, the trustees have been working closely with the Co-CEOs to ensure that sustainability is a priority.

To protect against financial fraud, Amina has financial policies that require two authorised signatures on all accounts, identifies levels of financial liability that can be entered into by staff members, and ensures checks on cash handling.

Post Balance Sheet Events

Impact of the Covid-19 pandemic and ensuing response measures: We anticipate medium and long-term impact of the Covid-19 pandemic on the operation of the charity due to varying degree of pandemic response measures. Additionally, we anticipate the economic recession will impact the funding landscape and to address that risk we are already looking at financial sustainability of the organisation for applying for longer term funding programmes which will help deliver on the organisational objectives in the next three to five years. Additionally, it is also currently unclear how the economic recession will impact in the medium and long-term funding streams and in line of this we will review fundraising strategy at regular short-term intervals.

Statement of Trustees' Responsibilities
For The Year Ended 31 March 2022

The trustees (who are also the directors of Amina - The Muslim Women's Resource Centre for the purposes of company law) are responsible for preparing the Report of the Trustees and the financial statements in accordance with applicable law and United Kingdom Accounting Standards (United Kingdom Generally Accepted Accounting Practice) including Financial Reporting Standard 102 "The Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland"

Company law requires the trustees to prepare financial statements for each financial year. Under company law the trustees must not approve the financial statements unless they are satisfied that they give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the charitable company and of the incoming resources and application of resources, including the income and expenditure, of the charitable company for that period. In preparing these financial statements, the trustees are required to:

- select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently;
- observe the methods and principles in the Charity SORP 2019 (FRS102);
- make judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent;
- prepare the financial statements on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the charitable company will continue in business.

The trustees are responsible for keeping adequate accounting records that disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the charitable company and enable them to ensure that the financial statements comply with the Companies Act 2006. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the charitable company and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.'

In so far as the trustees are aware:

- there is no relevant audit information of which the charitable company's auditors are unaware; and
- the trustees have taken all steps that they ought to have taken to make themselves aware of any relevant audit information and to establish that the auditors are aware of that information

Report of the Independent Auditors to the Trustees and Members of
Amina - The Muslim Women's Resource Centre

Opinion

We have audited the financial statements of Amina - The Muslim Women's Resource Centre (the 'charitable company') for the year ended 31 March 2022 which comprise the Statement of Financial Activities, the Statement of Financial Position and notes to the financial statements, including a summary of significant accounting policies. The financial reporting framework that has been applied in their preparation is applicable law and United Kingdom Accounting Standards, including Financial Reporting Standard 102 The Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland (United Kingdom Generally Accepted Accounting Practice).

In our opinion the financial statements:

- give a true and fair view of the state of the charitable company's affairs as at 31 March 2022 and of its incoming resources and application of resources, including its income and expenditure, for the year then ended;
- have been properly prepared in accordance with United Kingdom Generally Accepted Accounting Practice; and
- have been prepared in accordance with the requirements of the Companies Act 2006, the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) Act 2005 and regulation 8 of the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006.

Basis for opinion

We conducted our audit in accordance with International Standards on Auditing (UK) (ISAs (UK)) and applicable law. Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the auditor responsibilities for the audit of the financial statements section of our report. We are independent of the charitable company in accordance with the ethical requirements that are relevant to our audit of the financial statements in the UK, including the FRC's Ethical Standard, and we have fulfilled our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with these requirements. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion.

Conclusions relating to going concern

In auditing the financial statements, we have concluded that the trustees' use of the going concern basis of accounting in the preparation of the financial statements is appropriate.

Based on the work we have performed, we have not identified any material uncertainties relating to events or conditions that, individually or collectively, may cast significant doubt on the charitable company's ability to continue as a going concern for a period of at least twelve months from when the financial statements are authorised for issue.

Our responsibilities and the responsibilities of the trustees with respect to going concern are described in the relevant sections of this report.

Other information

The other information comprises the information included in the trustees annual report<sup>4</sup>, other than the financial statements and our auditor's report thereon. The trustees are responsible for the other information contained within the annual report.

Our opinion on the financial statements does not cover the other information and, except to the extent otherwise explicitly stated in our report, we do not express any form of assurance conclusion thereon.

Our responsibility is to read the other information and, in doing so, consider whether the other information is materially inconsistent with the financial statements, or our knowledge obtained in the course of the audit or otherwise appears to be materially misstated. If we identify such material inconsistencies or apparent material misstatements, we are required to determine whether this gives rise to a material misstatement in the financial statements themselves. If, based on the work we have performed, we conclude that there is a material misstatement of this other information, we are required to report that fact.

We have nothing to report in this regard.

Opinions on other matters prescribed by the Companies Act 2006

In our opinion, based on the work undertaken in the course of the audit:

- the information given in the Report of the Trustees for the financial year for which the financial statements are prepared is consistent with the financial statements; and
- the Report of the Trustees has been prepared in accordance with applicable legal requirements.

Report of the Independent Auditors to the Trustees and Members of
Amina - The Muslim Women's Resource Centre

Matters on which we are required to report by exception

In the light of the knowledge and understanding of the charitable company and its environment obtained in the course of the audit, we have not identified material misstatements in the Report of the Trustees.

We have nothing to report in respect of the following matters in relation to which the Companies Act 2006 and the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006 requires us to report to you if, in our opinion:

- adequate accounting records have not been kept or returns adequate for our audit have not been received from branches not visited by us; or
- the financial statements are not in agreement with the accounting records and returns; or
- certain disclosures of trustees' remuneration specified by law are not made; or
- we have not received all the information and explanations we require for our audit; or
- the trustees were not entitled to take advantage of the small companies exemption from the requirement to prepare a Strategic Report or in preparing the Report of the Trustees.

Responsibilities of trustees

As explained more fully in the Statement of Trustees' Responsibilities, the trustees (who are also the directors of the charitable company for the purposes of company law) are responsible for the preparation of the financial statements and for being satisfied that they give a true and fair view, and for such internal control as the trustees determine is necessary to enable the preparation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the financial statements, the trustees are responsible for assessing the charitable company's ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless the trustees either intend to liquidate the charitable company or to cease operations, or have no realistic alternative but to do so.

Our responsibilities for the audit of the financial statements

We have been appointed as auditor under section 44(1)(c) of the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) Act 2005 and under the Companies Act 2006 and report in accordance with regulations made under those Acts.

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue a Report of the Independent Auditors that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with ISAs (UK) will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these financial statements.

Irregularities, including fraud, are instances of non-compliance with laws and regulations. We design procedures in line with our responsibilities, outlined above, to detect material misstatements in respect of irregularities, including fraud.

The extent to which our procedures are capable of detecting irregularities, including fraud is detailed below:

Our approach to identifying and assessing the risks of material misstatement in respect of irregularities, including fraud and non-compliance with laws and regulations, was as follows:

- The engagement partner ensured that the engagement team collectively had the appropriate competence, capabilities and skills to identify or recognise non-compliance with applicable laws and regulations;
- We identified the laws and regulations applicable to the company through discussions with directors and other management, and from our wider knowledge and experience;
- We focused on specific laws and regulations which we considered may have a direct material effect on the financial statements or the operations of the company, including the The Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006 and Financial Reporting Standards 102 Statement of Recommended Practice.
- We assessed the extent of compliance with the laws and regulations identified above through making enquiries of management and inspecting legal correspondence; and
- Identified laws and regulations were communicated within the audit team regularly and the team remained alert to instances of non-compliance throughout the audit.

We assessed the susceptibility of the company's financial statements to material misstatement, including obtaining an understanding of how fraud might occur, by:

- Making enquiries of management as to where they considered there was susceptibility to fraud, their knowledge of actual, suspected and alleged fraud; and
- Considering the internal controls in place to mitigate risks of fraud and non-compliance with laws and regulations

Report of the Independent Auditors to the Trustees and Members of Amina - The Muslim Women's Resource Centre

Audit response to risks of irregularities identified

To address the risk of fraud through management bias and override of controls, we:

- Performed analytical procedures to identify any unusual or unexpected relationships;
- Tested journal entries to identify unusual transactions;
- Assessed whether judgements and assumptions made in determining the accounting estimates set out were indicative of potential bias; and
- Investigated the rationale behind significant or unusual transactions.

In response to the risk of irregularities and non-compliance with laws and regulations, we designed procedures which included, but were not limited to:

- Agreeing financial statement disclosures to underlying supporting documentation;
- Reading the minutes of meetings of those charged with governance;
- Enquiring of management as to actual and potential litigation and claims; and
- Requesting correspondence with HMRC, OSCR and the charity's legal advisors.

There are inherent limitations in our audit procedures described above. The more removed that laws and regulations are from financial transactions, the less likely it is that we would become aware of non-compliance. Auditing standards also limit the audit procedures required to identify non-compliance with laws and regulations to enquiry of the directors and other management and the inspection of regulatory and legal correspondence, if any.

Material misstatements that arise due to fraud can be harder to detect than those that arise from error as they may involve deliberate concealment or collusion.

A further description of our responsibilities for the audit of the financial statements is located on the Financial Reporting Council's website at www.frc.org.uk/auditorsresponsibilities. This description forms part of our Report of the Independent Auditors.

Use of our report

This report is made solely to the charitable company's members, as a body, in accordance with Chapter 3 of Part 16 of the Companies Act 2006, and to the charitable company's trustees, as a body, in accordance with Regulation 10 of the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006. Our audit work has been undertaken so that we might state to the charitable company's members and trustees those matters we are required to state to them in an auditor's report and for no other purpose. To the fullest extent permitted by law, we do not accept or assume responsibility to anyone other than the charitable company, the charitable company's members as a body and the charitable company's trustees as a body, for our audit work, for this report, or for the opinions we have formed.

Where costs cannot be directly attributed to particular headings they have been allocated to activities on a basis consistent with the use of resources.

Taxation
